Clinical Trial Recruitment Application – Terms of Use

Welcome to the Clinical Trial Recruitment Application. This is a shared platform that facilitates collaboration between Sponsors/CROs in multiple clinical trials and other research studies, Clinical Sites, Physicians and Patients.

This application is developed in PharmaLedger and is currently in Proof-of-Concept phase.

By accessing or using the Platform, you signify that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms of Use (“TOU” or “Terms”).

You acknowledge that your account credentials are personal to you and you agree not to provide any other person with access to this application using your user name, password or other security information. You agree to change your password on a regular basis and keep your login ID and password confidential. Please use caution when accessing your account from a public or shared computer so that others are not able to view or record your password or other personal information.

You are responsible for all activities that occur under your password or account.

You agree to: (a) immediately notify PharmaLedger of any unauthorized use of your password or account or any other breach of security, and (b) ensure that you exit from your account at the end of each session. PharmaLedger will not be liable for any loss or damage arising from your failure to safeguard your account or password.

You are responsible for adequate protection and backup of all materials, and content that you upload to, download from, otherwise create, or use with the Service, and/or equipment you use in connection with the Service.

PharmaLedger has the right to disable any user name, password or other identifier, whether chosen by you or provided by us, at any time if, in our opinion, you have violated any provision of these Terms of Use.

PRIVACY

Please read the CTR Privacy Policy, which sets out which personal information this application collects, and what it is used for.

Where applicable, the relevant consent necessary for the processing of personal data will be obtained through a separate form.
